II.2) Quantity or scope of the contract

II.2.1) Total quantity or scope:

The service provider will take on the existing mailing list(s) of the ECB and will be responsible for amending, updating and maintaining them on a database; the mailing list contains approximately 15 700 addresses worldwide. Postage charges, which shall be minimised according to available mailing tariffs, are recharged to the ECB at cost. It is proposed to set up a separate list of e-mail addresses and to actively promote readership of the ECB publications. Currently there is an inventory of some 2 000 separate titles (including EU language variants) stored on 1 000 pallets. Each month in addition to its subscription mailings the ECB receives circa 2 300 requests for individual copies of its publications. These volumes are indicative only, and they shall not be warranted in the service agreement.

II.2.2) Options. Description and time when they may be exercised:

The mailing services provider may be required to develop, maintain and run an e-mail subscription database to allow individuals to register for specific regular ECB publications. Anticipated requirements are:

- 1) ability and experience to deliver e-mail addresses to enhance the number of readers of the ECB's multilingual publications (promotional activity) both for electronic and hard copy versions. This includes also the preparation of test-runs;
- 2) maintenance and at least bi-annual check/update of e-mail addresses;
- 3) providing twice a year the updated e-mail list for the ECB's 'alert' mail-service data for 'subscribers'.

II.3) Duration of the contract or time-limit for completion:

48 months.

VI.4) Additional information:
The contract is intended initially for 4 years, with the potential for a 1-year extension. The contract shall be governed by and interpreted under German civil law.
The deadline for questions or requests for clarification relating to the invitation to tender from tenderers shall be 6 days prior to the deadline for receipt of tenders.
Tenders and all supporting documents must be priced in euro and all contract payments will be made in euro. Tenderers will find details of the acceptability of submitting alternative offers in the invitation to tender document. All communications, discussions and meetings will be conducted in English and no interpretation facilities will be provided. Tenderers are also informed that presentations, interviews, and/or site visits may be required to confirm information contained in their offers.
The ECB reserves the right not to make any award and reserves the right to accept all or part of any tender unless the tenderer expressly stipulates otherwise in their tender. The ECB reserves the right to disqualify any applicant who provides information which proves to be incorrect.
The ECB will not be liable for any costs, nor shall it reimburse any expenses or losses that tenderers may incur in connection with the submission of their proposals. Proposals received will not be returned and will remain the property of the ECB.
Tenders shall be delivered, sealed in an envelope, not bearing any indication of the tenderer on the envelope, or in the franking thereon, clearly marked with the contract name and addressed as in I.1) above, so as to arrive no later than the date and time specified in IV.3.3) above.
Tenders may be rejected if the required information is not provided in the stated format at the time of tendering. It is the responsibility of tenderers to ensure that their tender is delivered not later than the deadline indicated in IV.3.3) above. The ECB will not consider any tenders received after that time. Tenders received in electronic format, or by facsimile will not be considered.

VI.5) Date of dispatch of this notice:

1.12.2006.
